

THE 2015–2016 ST. MARK'S RECITAL SERIES

vivace piano duo

Friday, September 18 • 7 p.m.

Linda Mack Berven and C. Scott Hagler return to the series with great music for four-hands piano including an exciting set of Brahms' Hungarian Dances.

enhakē

Friday, January 15 • 7 p.m.

enhakē thrilled 3rd Ave. Arts audiences on the 2015 Durango Chamber Music Festival. They return to the St. Mark's Recital Series with a concert that will include Olivier Messiaen's Quartet for the End of Time, recognized as one of the most important pieces of chamber music from the twentieth century. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to hear "a work of transcending beauty with moments of archangel-like severity. An act of faith and a compositional tour-de-force that encompasses medieval modes and Indian rhythmic cycles, birdsong transcriptions and bold orchestrations." —Wall Street Journal

nicolò spera

Friday, February 5 • 7 p.m.

Italian-born and Boulder-based classical guitarist Nicolò Spera makes his Durango debut, performing works by Bach, Mompou and more, in his own arrangements for the ten-string guitar.

gemma kavanagh

Friday, April 8 • 7 p.m.

Gemma returns for the 11th time on the series and takes us on a tour of Celtic music, accompanied by guest musicians performing on violin, cello, harp and more!

NOW in its eleventh season, the St. Mark's Recital Series is one of Durango's not-to-be-missed musical series.

The recitals are on Friday evenings at 7:00 p.m. and are followed by a reception where you can meet the artists and mingle with other area music lovers.

All recitals are held in the historic sanctuary of St. Mark's Church. Because seating is limited and some recitals have sold out, advanced ticket purchase is recommended.

Won't you consider providing additional support to the series? Your tax-deductible gift helps us continue these beautiful events.
