A Message from Executive Director

C. Scott Hagler

WE'RE BACK AND TOGETHER AGAIN! Musicians need their audiences, and we know you need the inspiration and feeding of your soul that you receive from live music performances.

There's so much great music coming up this season, and all our artists are very excited to perform for you! The easiest way to take it all in is by purchasing an all-event season pass. It's a bargain at $260, and is available online or by using the attached order form. BONUS! Season Pass holders will have access to a live concert video within several days of the actual concert.

I'm pleased to introduce to you several musicians who are new to 3rd Ave. Arts. Last season we virtually introduced you to horn player Angela K. Winter; she's back this season with two wind players who will be new to Durango audiences. You also heard the Inouye Sisters performing piano six-hands last season, and I'm thrilled to have them perform live! Kyle Osborne is St. Mark's new Director of Music Ministry, and he'll perform on the organ in February, celebrating the organ's 30th year.

Proof of full vaccination is required for everyone over the age of 12, or a negative result from a COVID-19 test taken within 72 hours of showtime. We are requiring that face masks be worn by all patrons, staff and volunteers.

Thank you, as always for your support and patronage. Stay healthy. We look forward to seeing you in person soon!

3rd Ave. Arts presents artistic and cultural events and arts-education opportunities that enrich the fabric of our community.
