A Message from Executive Director

C. Scott Hagler

I AM SO PLEASED to present 3rd Ave. Arts' 2022–2023 season! As always, we have your favorite concerts and festivals, including The Majesty of Christmas, Durango Chamber Singers, Durango Bach and Chamber Music Festivals. You'll also experience some new artists on the St. Mark's Recital Series.

There's so much great music coming up this season, and all our artists are very excited to perform for you! The easiest way to take it all in is by purchasing an all-event season pass. It's a bargain at $295, and is available online or by using the attached order form.

I'm happy to report that Kyle Osborne, St. Mark's Director of Music Ministry, has regained his health and will kick off the Recital Series on the organ October 28, celebrating the organ's 30th year.

As supporters of the arts, you know that ticket sales alone aren't enough to sustain us. Would you consider making a tax-deductible donation? You can use this form, or make a secure donation at our website.

Thank you, as always for your support and patronage. We look forward to seeing you at all 3rd Ave. Arts events!

Great concerts in the heart of Durango!
